

	VALUES: Made for More - Designed to Make a Difference
 BIG IDEA	Followers of Jesus are contributors, not consumers.
 ICE BREAKER	What's one practical way someone has recently served you in a way that made you feel truly valued or seen?
 MAIN POINTS	• True greatness is measured not by position or titles, but by your willingness to serve. • Most Christians approach church wearing a towel like a bib ("Feed me, entertain me, meet my needs"), when Jesus calls us to wear the towel as a tool of service ("How can I help?"). • You can't effectively serve others until you've let Jesus serve you first. • Real blessing comes through doing, not just knowing. • Your gifts and talents are meant to be used in community, not left sitting unused.
 DISCUSS	1. Have you ever had an "usher moment"—when you did something small that turned out to have bigger impact than you expected? 2. Why do you think none of the disciples volunteered to wash feet? What does this reveal about human nature and how we think about service? 3. Jesus linked His identity (knowing who He was) with His humility (serving without needing recognition). How does understanding your identity in Christ affect your willingness to serve? 4. What does Jesus washing Judas' feet tell us about the nature of Christian service? Are there limits to who we should serve? 5. How would you honestly describe your approach to church and faith right now—wearing the towel as a bib or as a tool to wash feet? What's one practical step that could help you shift from consumer to contributor? 6. Looking at the three discovery questions for finding where to serve (Passion, People, Past), which one resonates most with you? What does that tell you about where you might serve?

 SCRIPTURE	John 13:12-15 - When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. “Do you understand what I have done for you?” he asked them. “You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and rightly so, for that is what I am. Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. 1 Peter 4:10 - Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God’s grace.
